PASSES AN APPROPRIATION BILL.

House Then Takes an Adjournment Until Monday.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The house Friday passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill practically as it came from committee and adjourned until Monday. The civil service communication section disposed of, there was no debate on any section. Throughout the day the policy of retrenchment held full sway and all attempts to increase salaries failed.

The house passed a resolution to adjourn on Dec. 21 until Jan. 4, 1905, for the usual Christmas holiday.

Ore Season at an End.

Duluth, Dec. 10.—The last ore cargoes to leave the head of the lakes for the season were carried by the Neilson and Bunsen Friday night. Simultaneously with the loading of these boats are shipping on the Missabe road ceased for the season.

TO MAKE LAST STAND

RUSSIAN GARRISON AT PORT ARTHUR RETREATS TO FORTS ON LAOTIE MOUNTAIN.

FORTS ARE STILL MANNED

ENOUGH TROOPS LEFT BEHIND TO CONTEST THE ADVANCE OF THE JAPANESE.

London, Dec. 10.—According to the Morning Post's Shanghai dispatches the Port Arthur forces, with the exception of those manning the forts, have already retreated to Laotie mountain.

Laotie mountain is at the southernmost part of the peninsula, six miles southwest of the town and across the harbor. This strongly fortified height is 1,500 feet above the level of the sea. That is their final position.

The Japanese works designed for attacking the line of forts near Songshushan (Pine Tree hill), two miles north of town, are progressing rapidly. The Russian forts at Taiyang-kow are commanded by 203-Meter hill.

Details continue to filter in of the capture of 203-Meter hill. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent before Port Arthur explains that the final capture was due to a strong and sustained Japanese feint against the eastern fortifications on the night of Dec. 5, and the position of 203-Meter hill being an enfilading one, forced the Russians to evacuate without a contest, a parallel line of semi-permanent defenses extending eastward and irregularly over the slopes within a half mile north of Etse mountain.

Japanese Lost Heavily.

The Japanese casualties at 203-Meter hill alone exceeded the total of the battle of Nanshan, according to the Daily Mail's Tokio dispatches. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 29 a Tomyasu detachment, with a battalion of infantry and a company of engineers, received orders that they must capture 203-Meter hill, while a Yosida detachment of the same strength had similar orders to capture Akasaka hill. On Nov. 30 it became necessary to reinforce the attackers with a detachment under Major Shizu-to. During the operation the cold was so intense that many of the men were frost-bitten, as it was necessary to pass the night without shelter.

The Japanese, after the capture of 203-Meter hill anticipated a terrible bombardment from the Russian forts and made preparations accordingly, but the Russians remained strangely quiet.

The same correspondent states that Russians at Port Arthur on Dec. 7 resumed mine clearing operations, presumably to enable the torpedo boat destroyers to attempt to escape and join the Baltic squadron.

RUSSIANS DRIVEN OUT.

General Oku's Forces Capture and Hold Gushan Island.

London, Dec. 10.—The Daily Telegraph's Tientsin correspondent reports that General Oku, after a three-days' artillery engagement, drove the Russians on Sunday out of the small lofty island of Gushan, in the river, ten miles north of Liaoyang. The Russians, it is added, abandoned a quantity of supplies and several guns and retired to a position eight miles northwest, from whence they heavily bombarded the Japanese, setting fire on Tuesday to kerosene storehouses and causing great conflagrations which did not cease till Wednesday. The Japanese are still gallantly holding the island with a handful of men. Their casualties, it is said, number 5,000.

TO STARVE OUT THE GARRISON.

Japs Will Avoid Big Losses by Abandoning Assaults on Port Arthur.

Tokio, Dec. 10.—In disabling the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, precluding the possibility of its being able to reinforce the Russian second Pacific squadron, the Japanese have accomplished the main object of the desperate assaults against the fortress which they have been making for the past three months. There is now a strong probability that, while continuing the siege, they will avoid losses of the magnitude already attending their efforts and instead of assaulting will rely on starving out the garrison until it is finally captured.

SOUNDS DEATH KNEEL OF FORT.

Destruction of Fleet Ends Hope of Russians at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—The Russian authorities evidently are not yet satisfied as to the truth of the report of the destruction of the remainder of the Port Arthur squadron, as the censor has not yet permitted the publication of foreign reports to that effect. Nevertheless these reports are in the hands of the admiralty, where they are considered as sounding the knell of the Port Arthur fleet.

BRITAIN WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Will Make No Effort to End Russo-Japanese War.

London, Dec. 10.—In response to the appeal of the International Arbitration and Peace association, Foreign Minister Lansdowne repeats that the government is not aware of any circumstances that would justify them in modifying their previous decision not to interfere in the Russo-Japanese war.

THE RUSSIAN VIEW.

Believes Japan Wants Peace Congress to End the War.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—The opinion is expressed in official circles that the action of Japan in accepting the invitation of President Roosevelt to a second conference at The Hague was influenced by the hope that it might in some way pave the way for a restoration of peace.

REPEAT THEIR TESTIMONY.

Witnesses in Patterson Case Furnish No New Evidence.

New York, Dec. 10.—The testimony of the several witnesses who were Friday examined at the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of Caesar Young, in the criminal branch of the supreme court, was substantially the same as that given by the same persons at the mis-trial.

Frederick Michaels, the driver of the cab in which Young was shot, repeated his account of what occurred during the ride that ended in Young's death.

Police Captain Dennis Sweeney identified the pistol, and said that after the shooting Miss Patterson told him she was looking out of the cab window at the time the shot was fired, that she heard a muffled report and then Young fell across her lap.

Policemen Coo and Junior repeated their statements regarding what occurred between the time the shot was fired and the arrest of Miss Patterson, and Norman L. Coe, a photographer, identified photographs of the cab and the scene of the shooting.

NEWTON CLAIM NOT YET PAID.

But the Massachusetts Man Still Hopes to Get His Money.

Boston, Dec. 10.—The Post says Herbert D. Newton has not yet succeeded in recovering the $190,800 which he claims to have loaned Mrs. Chadwick, but he still claims to possess strong hopes of recovery.

Not upon the Cleveland woman does he base his hopes, but upon the belief that a certain millionaire, whose name he has agreed not to utter, will finally come to the woman's rescue.

Meanwhile a civil suit for $30,000 is in progress against Mr. Newton. The suit is brought by E. E. Williams, a bank official of Elyria, O., in an attempt to recover from Newton on accommodation notes signed by Newton to aid Mrs. Chadwick.

THE PURE FOOD BILL.

Senator Heyburn Will Bring It Up in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 10.—When the senate meets on Monday, Senator Heyburn, during the morning hour, will move for unanimous consent to take up the pure food bill. It is said an agreement has been reached to consider the measure until it is displaced at 2 p. m. by the unfinished business. The discussion will be permitted in order to test the sentiment of the senate in regard to the bill which, it is said, will be opposed almost unanimously by Democratic senators. Many Republican senators also have recorded themselves against the measure unless it is materially amended.

FOUR MEN ENTOMBED.

No Hope Entertained for Miners in Illinois Mine.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—A special to the Record-Herald from Eldorado, Ill., says:

Four men are entombed in the Eldorado Coal and Coke company's mine, with no hopes for their rescue; four others are cut and burned, from an explosion Friday which wrecked the shaft and demolished the upper works.

Mine Boss Patrick Reed, who volunteered to go down in the mine after the explosion, groped his way through the blinding fumes and rescued four men. The other four are in the wet entries and cannot be reached.

DEPARTURE DELAYED

MRS. C. L. CHADWICK DECIDES TO PASS A SECOND NIGHT IN NEW YORK PRISON.

WANTED TO RETURN TO OHIO

WOMAN WILLING TO GO BACK BUT HER ATTORNEYS WERE OPPOSED TO PLAN.

New York, Dec. 10.—After a day full of disagreements with her counsel as to whether she should waive examination and go to Cleveland, Mrs. Chadwick finally consented to remain another night in the Tombs but expressed the hope that she might leave there Saturday.

Mrs. Chadwick had made up her mind to ignore the advice of her local counsel, Messrs. Carpenter and Brown, and go to Cleveland to stand trial there, when late in the afternoon she received a telegram from her Cleveland counsel, Judge Albaugh, asking her not to return to Cleveland just yet. This telegram caused her to remain over night.

Lawyer Carpenter then notified Marshal Henkel of her intention and the marshal and United States Commissioner Shields announced that they would not remain at their offices after the usual closing hour on her account as they did Thursday.

Lawyers Carpenter and Powers had a conference after leaving Mrs. Chadwick, and Mr. Carpenter said that nothing further would be done for the night.

In regard to what would be done Saturday Mr. Carpenter was non-committal.

"Nothing will be done before noon," continued Mr. Carpenter. "I do not care to say whether we have given up the question of securing bail or not, but if you know anybody who is willing to go on her bond send him along. We could have obtained bail Friday were it not for the notoriety attached to the case."

Declined to Discuss Carnegie Notes.

Mr. Carpenter declined to discuss the alleged Carnegie notes or to say positively whether Mrs. Chadwick would waive examination Saturday or not. Neither would he say anything about the report that the allegedcurities of Mrs. Chadwick had been examined and found to be worthless.

Mrs. Chadwick spent the greater part of the time from 7 a. m. until 4 p. m. in the corridor in front of her cell. Here she talked with her lawyers and others who called to see her, including her son Emil and her nurse. Most of the visitors remained with her as long as the prison rules would permit.

Mrs. Chadwick was led to her cell in the Tombs prison by an attendant about 4 p. m. Friday. To the matron, Mrs. Chadwick said:

"I am glad I am not going to Cleveland tonight. I am tired enough to sleep well, I think, even behind these awful bars. It has been an extremely trying day and I am thankful that it is over. I do not care to go through many more such ordeals."

In her cell Mrs. Chadwick ate a heartly supper. She had chopped beef, sprinkled with grated onions, coffee and oranges.

The matron said Mrs. Chadwick showed a marked improvement over her condition in the morning.

After eating Mrs. Chadwick lay on her cot and said it was the first peaceful moment she had had since her troubles in New York began.

Mrs. Chadwick refused to see visitors at the Tombs at night and remained entirely alone.

During the evening two telegrams were delivered to her, one, it is said, from a club at Tippecanoe, O. This telegram asked the amount of bail under which Mrs. Chadwick was held.

REYNOLDS MAKES DENIAL.

Refutes Stories About Securities of Mrs. Chadwick Held by Him.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—Irl Reynolds Friday night, in a denial of the statement printed here that the securities which he holds for Mrs. Chadwick are valueless, said:

"There is no possible means whereby any information in regard to the genuineness of the securities which I hold of Mrs. Chadwick could have become known. You may say for me that any rumors in regard to their being worthless could not have arisen from any knowledge gained about them in the past few days. This is true for the reason that they have been jealously guarded against inspection by any one."

"Only on the witness stand will I make known what they are. These securities were turned over to me as trustee and I will say nothing about them except as trustee."

Regarding the attestation for $5,000,000 which he is said to have made Mr. Reynolds also declined to make a statement. The attestation involves too many details, he said, "and I may be able to enlighten the public about these securities and the attestation Saturday in the suit which Mr. Newton has brought against Mrs. Chadwick to recover the money that was loaned."

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS.

Hears Only Two Witnesses in the Chadwick Case.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—After hearing two witnesses in the Chadwick case the grand jury adjourned Friday afternoon until Monday morning. The witnesses Friday were L. T. Whitney, a director, and A. B. Spear, cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin. At the end of the hearing Prosecutor Keeler said the testimony gave him jurisdiction in the alleged forgery case because the notes were negotiated in this county. Friday's hearing was brief because of the non-arrival of witnesses, the most important of whom was C. T. Beckwith, president of the Citizen's National bank.

PRESENTED A BIG CHECK.

New York Man Tried to Get Half a Million Dollars.

New York, Dec. 10.—Edward A. Barnes, a traveling freight agent whose home is in this city, was arrested Friday after he had presented a check for $500,000 at the Citizens' Central National bank. The check was drawn payable to himself and was signed "J. B. Pope."

The cashier of the bank caused the arrest but refused to make a complaint because no one named J. B. Pope had an account at the bank. Barnes was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct and was sent to Bellevue hospital to be examined as to his sanity.

DESPERATE ATTACK A FAILURE.

General Assault by the Japanese on Port Arthur Fails.

Headquarters of the Japanese Third Army Before Port Arthur, Nov. 28, via Tientsin, Dec. 10.—The general assault on Port Arthur, which began at noon Nov. 26, is still in progress. In the first series of assaults an attempt was made to capture the forts at Rihlung and Kekwan mountain by penetrating the principal line of fortifications surrounding them, and to envelope the city from the east. At the same time a strong force pushed up the gorge of Shishi valley between two fortified ridges and attacked the supporting forts in the rear of West Rihlung mountain, with the intention of enveloping the city from the West.

The attempt failed after the most furious fighting that has been witnessed since Port Arthur was invested. The fighting lasted from noon of Nov. 26 until after dawn of the following day without cessation.

The fighting of the afternoon and night of Nov. 26 was the most desperate and sanguinary since the siege began. The opposing forces were so close together that only the fort walls or a few yards of level ground separated them. The struggle from start to finish was at close quarters, with bayonets and grenades and rifles used as clubs. The ferocity of the attacking Japanese was equalled by the defending Russians, who died at their posts everywhere fighting till their last breath.

At daylight on Nov. 27 quiet reigned and the silence during the day was broken only by occasional cannon and desultory rifle fire at points along the fortified ridge where the forces were far enough apart to use their rifles.

ROOSEVELT HEAVILY CRITICISED.

Nelson Spencer Disapproves of President's Civil Service Policy.

Washington, Dec. 10.—At the final session of the National Civil Service Reform league Friday, President Roosevelt was heavily criticised for the exemptions in the service through executive orders made by him during the past three years. Nelson S. Spencer of New York city made a direct attack on the course pursued by the president and was loudly applauded. The president was defended by ex-Civil Service Commissioner Foulke, who declared the country was to be congratulated on having a president who was actuated by considerations of justice as well as of law.

In his remarks Mr. Spencer declared that the legal consequence of a continuance of the present practice of making exemptions is the disruption of the condition of affairs as they existed prior to the passage of the civil service act. Under such a practice, it is not possible, he said, for the public to believe that it is treated with fair play.

Mr. Foulke declared that the Constitution provided for just such emergencies in appointments as had been exercised by giving discretionary power to the president.

DEPARTURE DELAYED

MRS. C. L. CHADWICK DECIDES TO PASS A SECOND NIGHT IN NEW YORK PRISON.

WANTED TO RETURN TO OHIO

WOMAN WILLING TO GO BACK BUT HER ATTORNEYS WERE OPPOSED TO PLAN.

New York, Dec. 10.—After a day full of disagreements with her counsel as to whether she should waive examination and go to Cleveland, Mrs. Chadwick finally consented to remain another night in the Tombs but expressed the hope that she might leave there Saturday.

In the first series of assaults an attempt was made to capture the forts at Rihlung and Kekwan mountain by penetrating the principal line of fortifications surrounding them, and to envelope the city from the east. At the same time a strong force pushed up the gorge of Shishi valley between two fortified ridges and attacked the supporting forts in the rear of West Rihlung mountain, with the intention of enveloping the city from the West.

The attempt failed after the most furious fighting that has been witnessed since Port Arthur was invested. The fighting lasted from noon of Nov. 26 until after dawn of the following day without cessation.

The fighting of the afternoon and night of Nov. 26 was the most desperate and sanguinary since the siege began. The opposing forces were so close together that only the fort walls or a few yards of level ground separated them. The struggle from start to finish was at close quarters, with bayonets and grenades and rifles used as clubs. The ferocity of the attacking Japanese was counteracted by the defending Russians, who died at their posts everywhere fighting till their last breath.

At daylight on Nov. 27 quiet reigned and the silence during the day was broken only by occasional cannon and desultory rifle fire at points along the fortified ridge where the forces were far enough apart to use their rifles.

ROOSEVELT HEAVILY CRITICISED.

Nelson Spencer Disapproves of President's Civil Service Policy.

Washington, Dec. 10.—At the final session of the National Civil Service Reform league Friday, President Roosevelt was heavily criticised for the exemptions in the service through executive orders made by him during the past three years. Nelson S. Spencer of New York city made a direct attack on the course pursued by the president and was loudly applauded. The president was defended by ex-Civil Service Commissioner Foulke, who declared the country was to be congratulated on having a president who was actuated by considerations of justice as well as of law.

In his remarks Mr. Spencer declared that the legal consequence of a continuance of the present practice of making exemptions is the disruption of the condition of affairs as they existed prior to the passage of the civil service act. Under such a practice, it is not possible, he said, for the public to believe that it is treated with fair play.

Mr. Foulke declared that the Constitution provided for just such emergencies in appointments as had been exercised by giving discretionary power to the president.

PASSES AN APPROPRIATION BILL.

House Then Takes an Adjournment Until Monday.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The house Friday passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill practically as it came from committee and adjourned until Monday. The civil service communication section disposed of, there was no debate on any section. Throughout the day the policy of retrenchment held full sway and all attempts to increase salaries failed.

The house passed a resolution to adjourn on Dec. 21 until Jan. 4, 1905, for the usual Christmas holiday.

Ore Season at an End.

Duluth, Dec. 10.—The last ore cargoes to leave the head of the lakes for the season were carried by the Neilson and Bunsen Friday night. Simultaneously with the loading of these boats ore shipping on the Missabe road ceased for the season.

RUSSIAN GARRISON AT PORT ARTHUR RETREATS TO FORTS ON LAOTIE MOUNTAIN.

FORTS ARE STILL MANNED

ENOUGH TROOPS LEFT BEHIND TO CONTEST THE ADVANCE OF THE JAPANESE.

Laotie mountain is at the southernmost part of the peninsula, six miles southwest of the town and across the harbor. This strongly fortified height is 1,500 feet above the level of the sea. That is their final position.

The Japanese works designed for attacking the line of forts near Song-shushan (Pine Tree hill), two miles north of town, are progressing rapidly. The Russian forts at Taiyang-kow are commanded by 203-Meter hill. Details continue to filter in of the capture of 203-Meter hill. The Daily Telegraph's correspondent before Port Arthur explains that the final capture was due to a strong and sustained Japanese effort against the eastern fortifications on the night of Dec. 5, and the position of 203-Meter hill being an enfilading one, forced the Russians to evacuate without a contest, a parallel line of semi-permanent defenses extending eastward and irregularly over the slopes within a half mile north of Etse mountain.

Japanese Lost Heavily.

The Japanese casualties at 203-Meter hill alone exceeded the total of the battle of Nanshan, according to the Daily Mail's Tokyo dispatches. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 29 a Tomyasu detachment, with a battalion of infantry and a company of engineers, received orders that they must capture 203-Meter hill, while a Yosid detachment of the same strength had similar orders to capture Akasaka hill. On Nov. 30 it became necessary to reinforce the attackers with a detachment under Major Shizu-to. During the operation the cold was so intense that many of the men were frost-bitten, as it was necessary to pass the night without shelter.

The Japanese, after the capture of 203-Meter hill anticipated a terrible bombardment from the Russian forts and made preparations accordingly, but the Russians remained strangely quiet.

The same correspondent states that Russians at Port Arthur on Dec. 7 resumed mine clearing operations, presumably to enable the torpedo boat destroyers to attempt to escape and join the Baltic squadron.

RUSSIANS DRIVEN OUT.

General Oku's Forces Capture and Hold Gushan Island.

London, Dec. 10.—The Daily Telegraph's Tientsin correspondent reports that General Oku, after a three-days' artillery engagement, drove the Russians on Sunday out of the small lofty island of Gushan, in the river, ten miles north of Liaoyang. The Russians, it is added, abandoned a quantity of supplies and several guns and retired to a position eight miles northwest, from whence they heavily bombarded the Japanese, setting fire on Tuesday to kerosene storehouses and causing great conflagrations which did not cease till Wednesday. The Japanese are still gallantly holding the island with a handful of men. Their casualties, it is said, number 5,000.

TO STARVE OUT THE GARRISON.

Japs Will Avoid Big Losses by Abandoning Assaults on Port Arthur.

Tokio, Dec. 10.—In disabling the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, precluding the possibility of its being able to reinforce the Russian second Pacific squadron, the Japanese have accomplished the main object of the desperate assaults against the fortress which they have been making for the past three months. There is now a strong probability that, while continuing the siege, they will avoid losses of the magnitude already attending their efforts and instead of assaulting will rely on starving out the garrison until it is finally captured.

SOUNDS DEATH KNELL OF FORT.

Destruction of Fleet Ends Hope of Russians at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—The Russian authorities evidently are not yet satisfied as to the truth of the report of the destruction of the remainder of the Port Arthur squadron, as the censor has not yet permitted the publication of foreign reports to that effect. Nevertheless these reports are in the hands of the admiralty, where they are considered as sounding the knell of the Port Arthur fleet.

BRITAIN WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Will Make No Effort to End Russo-Japanese War.

London, Dec. 10.—In response to the appeal of the International Arbitration and Peace association, Foreign Minister Lansdowne repeats that the government is not aware of any circumstances that would justify them in modifying their previous decision not to interfere in the Russo-Japanese war.

THE RUSSIAN VIEW.

Believes Japan Wants Peace Congress to End the War.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10.—The opinion is expressed in official circles that the action of Japan in accepting the invitation of President Roosevelt to a second conference at The Hague was influenced by the hope that it might in some way pave the way for a restoration of peace.

REPEAT THEIR TESTIMONY.

Witnesses in Patterson Case Furnish No New Evidence.

New York, Dec. 10.—The testimony of the several witnesses who were Friday examined at the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of Caesar Young, in the criminal branch of the supreme court, was substantially the same as that given by the same persons at the trial.

Frederick Michaels, the driver of the cab in which Young was shot, repeated his account of what occurred during the ride that ended in Young's death.

Police Captain Dennis Sweeney identified the pistol, and said that after the shooting Miss Patterson told him she was looking out of the cab window at the time the shot was fired, that she heard a muffled report and then Young fell across her lap.

Policemen Coe and Junior repeated their statements regarding what occurred between the time the shot was fired and the arrest of Miss Patterson, and Norman L. Coe, a photographer, identified photographs of the cab and the scene of the shooting.

NEWTON CLAIM NOT YET PAID.

But the Massachusetts Man Still Hopes to Get His Money.

Boston, Dec. 10.—The Post says Herbert D. Newton has not yet succeeded in recovering the $190,800 which he claims to have loaned Mrs. Chadwick, but he still claims to possess strong hopes of recovery.

Not upon the Cleveland woman does he base his hopes, but upon the belief that a certain millionaire, whose name he has agreed not to utter, will finally come to the woman's rescue.

Meanwhile a civil suit for $30,000 is in progress against Mr. Newton. The suit is brought by E. E. Williams, a bank official of Elyria, O., in an attempt to recover from Newton on accommodation notes signed by Newton to aid Mrs. Chadwick.

THE PURE FOOD BILL.

Senator Heyburn Will Bring It Up in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 10.—When the senate meets on Monday, Senator Heyburn, during the morning hour, will move for unanimous consent to take up the pure food bill. It is said an agreement has been reached to consider the measure until it is displaced at 2 p. m. by the unfinished business. The discussion will be permitted in order to test the sentiment of the senate in regard to the bill which, it is said, will be opposed almost unanimously by Democratic senators. Many Republican senators also have recorded themselves against the measure unless it is materially amended.

FOUR MEN ENTOMBED.

No Hope Entertained for Miners in Illinois Mine.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—A special to the Record-Herald from Eldorado, Ill., says:

Four men are entombed in the Eldorado Coal and Coke company's mine, with no hopes for their rescue; four others are cut and burned, from an explosion Friday which wrecked the shaft and demolished the upper works.

Mine Boss Patrick Reed, who volunteered to go down in the mine after the explosion, groped his way through the blinding fumes and rescued four men. The other four are in the west entries and cannot be reached.

DEPARTURE DELAYED

MRS. C. L. CHADWICK DECIDES TO PASS A SECOND NIGHT IN NEW YORK PRISON.

WANTED TO RETURN TO OHIO

WOMAN WILLING TO GO BACK BUT HER ATTORNEYS WERE OPPOSED TO PLAN.

New York, Dec. 10.—After a day full of disagreements with her counsel as to whether she should waive examination and go to Cleveland, Mrs. Chadwick finally consented to remain another night in the Tombs but expressed the hope that she might leave there Saturday.

Mrs. Chadwick had made up her mind to ignore the advice of her local counsel, Messrs. Carpenter and Brown, and go to Cleveland to stand trial there, when late in the afternoon she received a telegram from her Cleveland counsel, Judge Albaugh, asking her not to return to Cleveland just yet. This telegram caused her to remain over night.

Lawyer Carpenter then notified Marshal Henkel of her intention and the marshal and United States Commissioner Shields announced that they would not remain at their offices after the usual closing hour on her account as they did Thursday.

Lawyers Carpenter and Powers had a conference after leaving Mrs. Chadwick, and Mr. Carpenter said that nothing further would be done for the night.

In regard to what would be done Saturday Mr. Carpenter was non-committal.

"Nothing will be done before noon," continued Mr. Carpenter. "I do not care to say whether we have given up the question of securing bail or not, but if you know anybody who is willing to go on her bond send him along. We could have obtained bail Friday were it not for the notoriety attached to the case."

DECLINED TO DISCUSS CARNEGIE NOTES.

Mr. Carpenter declined to discuss the alleged Carnegie notes or to say positively whether Mrs. Chadwick would waive examination Saturday or not. Neither would he say anything about the report that the alleged securities of Mrs. Chadwick had been examined and found to be worthless.

Mrs. Chadwick spent the greater part of the time from 7 a. m. until 4 p. m. in the corridor in front of her cell. Here she talked with her lawyers and others who called to see her, including her son Emil and her nurse. Most of the visitors remained with her as long as the prison rules would permit.

Mrs. Chadwick was led to her cell in the Tombs prison by an attendant about 4 p. m. Friday. To the matron, Mrs. Chadwick said:

"I am glad I am not going to Cleveland tonight. I am tired enough to sleep well, I think, even behind these awful bars. It has been an extremely trying day and I am thankful that it is over. I do not care to go through any more such ordeals."

In her cell Mrs. Chadwick ate a heartily supper. She had chopped beef, sprinkled with grated onions, coffee and oranges.

The matron said Mrs. Chadwick showed a marked improvement over her condition in the morning.

After eating Mrs. Chadwick lay on her cot and said it was the first peaceful moment she had had since her troubles in New York began.

Mrs. Chadwick refused to see visitors at the Tombs at night and remained entirely alone.

During the evening two telegrams were delivered to her, one, it is said, from a club at Tippecanoe, O. This telegram asked the amount of bail under which Mrs. Chadwick was held.

REYNOLDS MAKES DENIAL.

Refutes Stories About Securities of Mrs. Chadwick Held by Him.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—Iri Reynolds Friday night, in a denial of the statement printed here that the securities which he holds for Mrs. Chadwick are valueless, said:

"There is no possible means whereby any information in regard to the genuineness of the securities which I hold of Mrs. Chadwick's could have become known. You may say for me that any rumors in regard to their being worthless could not have arisen from any knowledge gained about them in the past few days. This is true for the reason that they have been jealously guarded against inspection by any one."

"Only on the witness stand will I make known what they are. These securities were turned over to me as trustee and I will say nothing about them except as trustee."

Regarding the attestation for $5,000,000 which he is said to have made Mr. Reynolds also declined to make a statement. The attestation involves too many details, he said, "and I may be able to enlighten the public about these securities and the attestation Saturday in the suit which Mr. Newton has brought against Mrs. Chadwick to recover the money that was loaned."

GRAND JURY ADJOURNS.

Hears Only Two Witnesses in the Chadwick Case.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—After hearing two witnesses in the Chadwick case the grand jury adjourned Friday afternoon until Monday morning. The witnesses Friday were L. T. Whitney, a director, and A. B. Spear, cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin. At the end of the hearing Prosecutor Keeler said the testimony gave him jurisdiction in the alleged forgery case because the notes were negotiated in this county. Friday's hearing was brief because of the non-arrival of witnesses, the most important of whom was C. T. Beckwith, president of the Citizen's National bank.

PRESENTED A BIG CHECK.

New York Man Tried to Get Half a Million Dollars.

New York, Dec. 10.—Edward A. Barnes, a traveling freight agent whose home is in this city, was arrested Friday after he had presented a check for $500,000 at the Citizens' Central National bank. The check was drawn payable to himself and was signed "J. B. Pope."

The cashier of the bank caused the arrest but refused to make a complaint because no one named J. B. Pope had an account at the bank. Barnes was arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct and was sent to Bellevue hospital to be examined as to his sanity.

DESPERATE ATTACK A FAILURE.

General Assault by the Japanese on Port Arthur Fails.

Headquarters of the Japanese Third Army Before Port Arthur, Nov. 28, via Tientsin, Dec. 10.—The general assault on Port Arthur, which began at noon Nov. 26, is still in progress. In the first series of assaults an attempt was made to capture the forts at Rihlung and Kekwan mountain by penetrating the principal line of fortifications surrounding them, and to envelope the city from the east. "ATTORNEY TO THE GOVERNOR" appears to be a new office created by the governor elect. The office of insurance commissioner pays salary enough to cover both positions and there will be no additional expense.

The Minnesota building at the world's fair in St. Louis is to be brought to the state and placed on the fair grounds at Hamline. The building has been much abused and its conspicuous position will allow all of the people of the state to judge whether the uncomplimentary remarks were warranted or not.

It is reported that C. E. Vasaly, mayor of Little Falls and publisher of the Herald in that city, is to be appointed state labor commissioner under Gov. Johnson. If any part of the pie goes to Morrison county Bro. Vasaly will be the logical man to get it, for he has labored hard and earnestly in the interest of the democratic party.

The Cass Lake people want the country surrounding them developed by settlers and object to the forest reserve. At a meeting held there resolutions were adopted condemning the reserve proposition and methods were discussed to pursue in order to defeat the provisions of the Morris law. The growth and development of the community will be forever retarded, it is claimed, while the original idea was to open the country to settlement.

VAN SANT is now being talked of for senator to succeed Moses E. Clapp by the Minneapolis newspapers. As fast as their straw men are knocked down they rise to the occasion and bring up another. The Journal is scared for fear that Bob Dunn will be a candidate if the present governor should get into the race. No fear need be borrowed, however, for the opposition to the return of Clapp is centered in Minneapolis and it will not spread very far outside the confines of Hennepin county, and exists more in newspaper talk and wind than in reality.

Disastrous Wrecks

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Louis Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Too many people have a habit of going with their bristles up.

It is seldom one hears an interesting lie, though the people surely get enough practice.

The first question asked in every home by every member of the family returning from an absence on the streets is "Where's mother?"

There are two complaints which can usually be made of every woman: She has too much patience with her sons and not enough with her father.

Talk about a man fussing about the family bills! You should hear a countrywoman who makes butter talk to her folks when they dip into her cream.

It is a good thing to keep at least one building in the course of erection in a small town. It gives the people a place to go and find fault on a Sunday, outside of the regular churchgoing.—Acheson Globe.

FOR A SHIPBUILDING CONCERN.

Receivers Appointed by a Court in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10.—Receivers were appointed by Judge Davis in common pleas court Friday for the Neafie & Levy Ship and Engine Building company of this city. The receivers were appointed on application of the S. B. Verooman company, limited, of this city, which concern furnished lumber to the shipbuilding company. The receivers appointed are John Grange, a retired banker, and Sommers N. Smith, vice president and general manager of the Neafie & Levy company.

The creditors in their application state that the larger part of the company's indebtedness has been incurred in the work done upon vessels under construction, and that as the work is completed, either partially or entirely, upon each vessel, the stipulated contract price will become payable thereon. It was therefore made necessary, the application says, that for the protection of the creditors of the company and of those for whom the company is constructing vessels, that its operations should not be interfered with by writs of attachment or other executions, and that if allowed to continue its business without interruption, the company will be able to meet all its engagements.

In confirmation of this the company's attorneys say that the assets of the company far exceed the liabilities, but are not at present available. The concern will be rehabilitated and continue business as heretofore.

The Neafie & Levy company has done and is doing considerable work for the United States government. The protected cruiser St. Louis, 4,500 tons, is now on the stocks and is two-thirds completed. Besides this the company recently received contracts for the building of three steel tugs for the government. The company has built several torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers and recently finished the cruiser Denver. The company is also doing much private work.

The money expended on the construction of the St. Louis, which will eventually be returned to the company when the government pays for the cruiser, is given as the principal cause for the company's present financial stress.

Switchman Killed

Minneapolis, Dec. 10.—Thomas Blondo, a switchman employed by the Northern Pacific road, was killed Friday in the yards at Twenty-seventh avenue southeast. He was on top of a car which was being shunted to a side track. He slipped from the frosty roof and was caught by the trucks and dragged a distance before the car stopped. His body was mangled and he was decapitated by the wheels of the car.

INITIATION OF CO-EDS.

Boston University Upper Class Girls Make Freshmen Do Stunts.

Some fifty Boston university freshmen co-eds were recently put through a course of stunts at the annual initiation of Gamma Delta society, says a Boston special dispatch to the New York Times.

Dressed in sheets and gorgeous raiment, with a big red bandanna handkerchief around the neck, hair flying and snarled, shirtwaists turned inside out, some barefooted and others wearing stockings of various hues, candidates were marched from the locker room to Jacob Sleeper hall on the top floor, where a crowd of upper class co-eds met them.

First on the programme was a settee race. Several victims were compelled to crawl under overturned settees, only to be stopped abruptly by colliding with a bucket of water or suffering an electric shock.

Some of the other requirements were to write an essay of twenty-five words on "How I'd Like to Be a Soph" and to bring a picture of a favorite professor.

"ATTORNEY TO THE GOVERNOR" appears to be a new office created by the governor elect. The office of insurance commissioner pays salary enough to cover both positions and there will be no additional expense.

THE Minnesota building at the world's fair in St. Louis is to be brought to the state and placed on the fair grounds at Hamline. The building has been much abused and its conspicuous position will allow all of the people of the state to judge whether the uncomplimentary remarks were warranted or not.

It is reported that C. E. Vasaly, mayor of Little Falls and publisher of the Herald in that city, is to be appointed state labor commissioner under Gov. Johnson. If any part of the pie goes to Morrison county Bro. Vasaly will be the logical man to get it, for he has labored hard and earnestly in the interest of the democratic party.

THE Cass Lake people want the country surrounding them developed by settlers and object to the forest reserve. At a meeting held there resolutions were adopted condemning the reserve proposition and methods were discussed to pursue in order to defeat the provisions of the Morris law. The growth and development of the community will be forever retarded, it is claimed, while the original idea was to open the country to settlement.

VAN SANT is now being talked of for senator to succeed Moses E. Clapp by the Minneapolis newspapers. As fast as their straw men are knocked down they rise to the occasion and bring up another. The Journal is scared for fear that Bob Dunn will be a candidate if the present governor should get into the race. No fear need be borrowed, however, for the opposition to the return of Clapp is centered in Minneapolis and it will not spread very far outside the confines of Hennepin county, and exists more in newspaper talk and wind than in reality.

Disastrous Wrecks

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Louis Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Too many people have a habit of going with their bristles up.

It is seldom one hears an interesting lie, though the people surely get enough practice.

The first question asked in every home by every member of the family returning from an absence on the streets is "Where's mother?"

There are two complaints which can usually be made of every woman: She has too much patience with her sons and not enough with her father.

Talk about a man fussing about the family bills! You should hear a countrywoman who makes butter talk to her folks when they dip into her cream.

It is a good thing to keep at least one building in the course of erection in a small town. It gives the people a place to go and find fault on a Sunday, outside of the regular churchgoing.—Atherton Globe.

FOR A SHIPBUILDING CONCERN.

Receivers Appointed by a Court in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10.—Receivers were appointed by Judge Davis in common pleas court Friday for the Neafie & Levy Ship and Engine Building company of this city. The receivers were appointed on application of the S. B. Veronman company, limited, of this city, which concern furnished lumber to the shipbuilding company. The receivers appointed are John Grange, a retired banker, and Sommers N. Smith, vice president and general manager of the Neafie & Levy company.

The creditors in their application state that the larger part of the company's indebtedness has been incurred in the work done upon vessels under construction, and that as the work is completed, either partially or entirely, upon each vessel, the stipulated contract price will become payable thereon. It was therefore made necessary, the application says, that for the protection of the creditors of the company and of those for whom the company is constructing vessels, that its operations should not be interfered with by writs of attachment or other executions, and that if allowed to continue its business without interruption, the company will be able to meet all its engagements.

In confirmation of this the company's attorneys say that the assets of the company far exceed the liabilities, but are not at present available. The concern will be rehabilitated and continue business as heretofore.

The Neafie & Levy company has done and is doing considerable work for the United States government. The protected cruiser St. Louis, 4,500 tons, is now on the stocks and is two-thirds completed. Besides this the company recently received contracts for the building of three steel tugs for the government. The company has built several torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers and recently finished the cruiser Denver. The company is also doing much private work. The money expended on the construction of the St. Louis which will eventually be returned to the company when the government pays for the cruiser, is given as the principal cause for the company's present financial stress.

Switchman Killed.

Minneapolis, Dec. 10.—Thomas Blondo, a switchman employed by the Northern Pacific road, was killed Friday in the yards at Twenty-seventh avenue southeast. He was on top of a car which was being shunted to a side track. He slipped from the frosty roof and was caught by the trucks and dragged a distance before the car stopped. His body was mangled and he was decapitated by the wheels of the car.

INITIATION OF CO-EDS.

Boston University Upper Class Girls Make Freshmen Do Stunts.

Some fifty Boston university freshmen co-eds were recently put through a course of stunts at the annual initiation of Gamma Delta society, says a Boston special dispatch to the New York Times.

Dressed in sheets and gorgeous raiment, with a big red bandanna handkerchief around the neck, hair flying and snarled, shirtwaists turned inside out, some barefooted and others wearing stockings of various hues, candidates were marched from the locker room to Jacob Sleeper hall on the top floor, where a crowd of upper class co-eds met them.

First on the programme was a settie race. Several victims were compelled to crawl under overturned settees, only to be stopped abruptly by colliding with a bucket of water or suffering an electric shock.

Some of the other requirements were to write an essay of twenty-five words on "How I'd Like to be a Soph!" and to bring a picture of a favorite professor.

Seat Sale Opened With a Rush.

Judging from the advance sale today the participants will be greeted with a packed house at the initial production of the Merchants' Carnival on Monday evening and while there are a number of good seats left it looks now as if the people will be turned away, as standing room will positively not be sold.

The carnival is gaining in popularity and each day brings a request from other business interests to be represented. Among other firms which have not been published before are the Atlas Milling Co. and the Telephone Exchange. Both firms will have an elaborate display and will add materially to the general results. Admission is without the reach of all with no extra charge for reserving your seats. 50c entitles you to a good seat if you go to H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store before all are gone.

DEATHS ARE NUMEROUS

Sudden Death of E. L. Howe This Morning at the Home of His Daughter

AN OLD RESIDENT OF BRAINERD

Death of Mrs. Jerry Hogan Occurred Last Night—Two Funerals This Afternoon

The very sudden death of E. L. Howe, for fifteen years a well known resident of this city, occurred this morning about 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chris Krech, Sixth street south. Mr. Howe was at one time employed at the N. P. blacksmith shop in this city, but about two years ago he went to Donnybrook, N. D., to live on a claim. Mrs. Howe came back from there some time ago and intended to spend the winter in the city. Mr. Howe arrived in the city two days ago and he intended after visiting here for a short time to go to Iowa to visit with relatives. He had been troubled for some time with kidney disease and this was the cause of death. The deceased leaves besides a wife, three sons and three daughters. They are: George, of Brainerd, and Arthur and Benjamin Howe, of Donnybrook, N. D., Mrs. Chris Krech, Mrs. J. A. McKay and Miss Mable Howe, of this city. The funeral arrangements will not be made until the arrival of the sons from North Dakota.

The death of Mrs. Jerry Hogan, a well known and respectable resident of the city, occurred last evening at her home on Mill St., East Brainerd. Mr. Hogan had been sick for some time. She leaves besides her husband, four sons and one daughter as follows: William Jerry, Edward, John and Mary Hogan, all of this city. The funeral will be held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis Catholic church.

W. R. Phillips arrived in the city this afternoon with the remains of his mother, Mary Phillips, who died at her home in Kimball, Stearns county, on Friday afternoon. They were formerly residents of this city. Deceased was 78 years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Evergreen cemetery.

The remains of the late Mrs. Jabe were brought to this city this afternoon from Merriam Park and were removed to the home of W. R. Holst where the funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

The funeral services over the remains of the late John Martin were held this afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz in East Brainerd. There was a large turnout of the members of the moulder's union and friends of the deceased. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

D. M. Clark & Co. have a full line of pictures and picture frames.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

The Elks' dancing party last evening was quite well attended and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

The high school dancing club enjoyed one of its pleasant dancing parties last evening.

The approaching marriage of Mr. George Johnston, a popular employee of the Minnesota & International, and Miss Whitford, of Motley, has been announced.

One of the most important social events of the coming week will be the K. P. dancing party in the K. P. hall on Wednesday evening. Arrangements have been made for one of the swellest of affairs and the dance is in the hands of very competent committees.

The Maccabees will give a ball on the evening of December 19.

The Rector and Mrs. Moody will receive the members and friends of St. Paul's parish on Saturday evening, Dec. 17, from 8 to 10 p. m., to meet the bishop of the diocese. The congregation will kindly accept this notice as an invitation.

D. M. Clark & Co. oldest installment house in city. Easy Terms.

Application for position as Janitor at the new public library building will be received at the office of Henry I. Cohen in Sleeper block until Saturday, Dec. 10, 1904.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE TENDERFOOT."

The story of "The Tenderfoot" the brilliant and successful musical comedy, which will be seen at the Brainerd opera house Thursday, Dec. 15, is novel and refreshing.

Its newness of theme, dealing as it does with the wild Southwest and the Texas-Mexican border and its rangers, cowboys, Indians, senoritas in sharp contrast with the down-East pedagogue traveling with a party of Eastern college girls. He is the typical "tenderfoot," as the term is usually understood and is the subject for many spirited complications. The story concerns Col. Paul Winthrop of the Texas Rangers and Marion Washington a rather high-strung girl who owns a ranch. A military masquerade ball has been given and Winthrop in an impulsive moment has torn the mask from Marion's face and kissed her. The General in command orders the Colonel to offer her his hand in marriage. She refuses; declaring that rather than marry one of that regiment of ruffian she would wed the poorest beggar in Texas. Winthrop, is not unmasked, is not known to Marion by sight. Clad as a cowboy, he visits her ranch and finds her still angry under the affront. She has been considering an alliance with another man at the time of Winthrop's visit and he meets her just when she is ready to carry out the spirit of her declaration to marry the poorest beggar in Texas rather than one of the Texas Rangers. Events follow, which prompt her to offer her hand and fortune to the pseudo-cowboy. An Indian uprising is feared in the neighborhood and a detachment is detailed to the ranch for its protection and immediately afterwards the regiment receives marching orders.

The cast, headed by Phil Ryley, will be nearly the identical one which was seen in the Metropolis and includes the following well-known artists:

Geo. Romain, Ed. Crawford, Thos. Cameron, Arthur Wanser, Mary Carlington, May Malestesta and Lucille Adams.

The chorus is large and well trained and especially attractive. The entire personnel of the company numbers over sixty people.

HAVERY'S MINSTRELS.

W. E. Nankeville's Haverly's Minstrels, will be seen at the Brainerd opera house soon and this is the first big burnt cork aggregation to visit this section this season, it is safe to predict an overflowing house. Splendid reports are heard of this attraction from all along the line, and it is with pardonable pride that the management call attention to this season's company of superior artists.

"SIGN OF THE CROSS."

All lovers of the drama of the better class will be very glad to know that Wilson Barrett's famous play, "The Sign of the Cross," will soon have a production at the local theatre. This should certainly be one of the dramatic events of the present season and a great audience will no doubt be on hand to give this attraction such a welcome that it will bring them back each succeeding year. This play and company has only been seen in the larger cities and has been filling the theatres as no other attraction has ever filled them for the past six or seven years. Beautiful scenery and costumes will be seen here and a great performance may be expected.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Fanklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. The Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for burns, scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c, at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

SEVERAL PERSONAL INJURY CASES ON

Old Case of Orpha Huffman vs the City of Brainerd is Again on Calendar

MOST OF THE CASES ARE NEW

Case of A. F. Claus vs Northern Pacific will be One of the Cases to be Tried

There are several personal injury cases to be tried at the coming term of the district court which convenes in this city next Tuesday. The case of Orpha Huffman vs the City of Brainerd will be one of the cases to be taken up. This is an old case and it is thought that perhaps it will be settled before being called. Alderman & Manton appear for the plaintiff and W. A. Fleming will look after the city's interests.

Another case is that of A. F. Claus vs the Northern Pacific company, Bowe & Reimstad for the plaintiff. He was injured while working for the company last summer and sues for $10,000 damages.

John J. Keely brings suit against the M. & I. to recover $10,000. He is a man who was working at the Billings mill north of the city and while walking on the M. & I. track going home one night last June he was hit by a train and quite badly injured. Attorney C. A. Albright appears for Mr. Keely.

Sudden Death of E. L. Howe This Morning at the Home of His Daughter

AN OLD RESIDENT OF BRAINERD

Death of Mrs. Jerry Hogan Occurred Last Night—Two Funerals This Afternoon

The very sudden death of E. L. Howe, for fifteen years a well known resident of this city, occurred this morning about 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chris Kreech, Sixth street south. Mr. Howe was at one time employed at the N. P. blacksmith shop in this city, but about two years ago he went to Donnybrook, N. D., to live on a claim. Mrs. Howe came back from there some time ago and intended to spend the winter in the city. Mr. Howe arrived in the city two days ago and he intended after visiting here for a short time to go to Iowa to visit with relatives. He had been troubled for some time with kidney disease and this was the cause of death. The deceased leaves besides a wife, three sons and three daughters. They are: George, of Brainerd, and Arthur and Benjamin Howe, of Donnybrook, N. D., Mrs. Chris Kreech, Mrs. J. A. McKay and Miss Mable Howe, of this city. The funeral arrangements will not be made until the arrival of the sons from North Dakota.

The death of Mrs. Jerry Hogan, a well known and respectable resident of the city, occurred last evening at her home on Mill St., East Brainerd. Mr. Hogan had been sick for some time. She leaves besides her husband, four sons and one daughter as follows: William Jerry, Edward, John and Mary Hogan, all of this city. The funeral will be held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis Catholic church.

W. R. Phillips arrived in the city this afternoon with the remains of his mother, Mary Phillips, who died at her home in Kimball, Stearns county, on Friday afternoon. They were formerly residents of this city. Deceased was 78 years of age. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Evergreen cemetery.

The remains of the late Mrs. Jabe were brought to this city this afternoon from Merriam Park and were removed to the home of W. R. Holst where the funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

The funeral services over the remains of the late John Martin were held this afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz in East Brainerd. There was a large turnout of the members of the moulder's union and friends of the deceased. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE TENDERFOOT."

The story of "The Tenderfoot" the brilliant and successful musical comedy, which will be seen at the Brainerd opera house Thursday, Dec. 15, is novel and refreshing.

Its newness of theme, dealing as it does with the wild Southwest and the Texas-Mexican border and its rangers, cowboys, Indians, señoritas in sharp contrast with the down-East pedagogue traveling with a party of Eastern college girls. He is the typical "tenderfoot," as the term is usually understood and is the subject for many spirited complications. The story concerns Col. Paul Winthrop of the Texas Rangers and Marion Washington a rather high-strung girl who owns a ranch. A military masquerade ball has been given and Winthrop in an impulsive moment has torn the mask from Marion's face and kissed her. The General in command orders the Colonel to offer her his hand in marriage. She refuses; declaring that rather than marry one of that regiment of ruffian she would wed the poorest beggar in Texas. Winthrop, is not unmasked, is not known to Marion by sight. Clad as a cowboy, he visits her ranch and finds her still angry under the affront. She has been considering an alliance with another man at the time of Winthrop's visit and he meets her just when she is ready to carry out the spirit of her declaration to marry the poorest beggar in Texas rather than one of the Texas Rangers. Events follow, which prompt her to offer her hand and fortune to the pseudo-cowboy. An Indian uprising is feared in the neighborhood and a detachment is detailed to the ranch for its protection and immediately afterwards the regiment receives marching orders.

The cast, headed by Phil Ryley, will be nearly the identical one which was seen in the Metropolis and includes the following well-known artists:

Geo. Romain, Ed. Crawford, Thos. Cameron, Arthur Wanzer, Mary Carrington, May Malestesta and Lucille Adams.

The chorus is large and well trained and especially attractive. The entire personnel of the company numbers over sixty people.

HAVERLY'S MINSTRELS.

W. E. Nankeville's Haverly's Minstrels, will be seen at the Brainerd opera house on and this is the first big burnt cork aggregation to visit this section this season, it is safe to predict an overflowing house. Splendid reports are heard of this attraction from all along the line, and it is with pardonable pride that the management call attention to this season's company of superior artists.

"SIGN OF THE CROSS."

All lovers of the drama of the better class will be very glad to know that Wilson Barrett's famous play, "The Sign of the Cross," will soon have a production at the local theatre. This should certainly be one of the dramatic events of the present season and a great audience will no doubt be on hand to give this attraction such a welcome that it will bring them back each succeeding year. This play and company has only been seen in the larger cities and has been filling the theatres as no other attraction has ever filled them for the past six or seven years. Beautiful scenery and costumes will be seen here and a great performance may be expected.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. The Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for burns, scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c, at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

CANDIDATES FILE EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Yesterday Was Last Day for Candidates to File Expense Accounts With Auditor

NEARLY ALL HAVE FILED

Some Rather Grotesque and Unique Figuring of Items in the Accounts

As required by law nearly all the candidates for office, both at the primaries and general election, have filed their accounts of expense with County Auditor Mahlum. These accounts in detail would be rather interesting reading and some of them would be funny enough for Puck. One defeated candidate for instance has an item down for a bushel of apples which cost him 75 cents. Another candidate thought it necessary to make the announcement in his report that he had "made no promises."

The different accounts filed with the auditor up to yesterday, which was the last day on which they can be legally filed, are as follows: W. H. Andrews $52.20, J. A. Hoffbauer $3, A. Mahlum $175, R. Isle $5, W. W. Bane $2, H. H. Baker $18, J. A. Erickson $90, Adam Armstrong $13.50, G. I. Reimstad $1.75, A. Purdy $175, W. H. Crowell $173, A. G. Trommald $44.70, S. R. Adair $244, J. T. Frater $249.22, Judd Wright $219, J. T. Sanborn $45, E. H. Simmons $86, H. J. Spencer $177.50, J. H. Warner $54.50, J. F. Bartlett $20, J. A. Wilson $45, A. D. Polk $151.70, O. P. Erickson $105.30, C. C. Kyle $59.75, J. F. Smart $56.58, A. M. Opsahl $8, F. J. Reid $47, T. T. Blackburn $64, W. E. Erickson $5.75, W. Heron $68.75, D. M. McDonald $20, Gust Lundgren $20, J. N. True $20 and A. M. Cleaves $23.50.

Not a Sick Day Since.
"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50c at H. P. A Compliment.
The Sauk Centre Herald pays the young ladies of Brainerd the following compliment:

The "Bachelor Maids" gave a charity ball in Brainerd last week. According to the Dispatch the B. M.'s aforesaid were so becomingly gowned, so darlingly chic and proved such charming hostesses that we doubt there will be any bachelor maids left in Brainerd to give a ball next year.

Seat Sale Opened With a Rush.

Judging from the advance sale today the participants will be greeted with a packed house at the initial production of the Merchants' Carnival on Monday evening and while there are a number of good seats left it looks now as if the people will be turned away, as standing room will positively not be sold.

The carnival is gaining in popularity and each day brings a request from other business interests to be represented. Among other firms which have not been published before are the Atlas Milling Co. and the Telephone Exchange. Both firms will have an elaborate display and will add materially to the general results. Admission is within the reach of all with no extra charge for reserving your seats. 50c entitles you to a good seat if you go to H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store before all are gone.

Just Cause for Divorce.

The St. Cloud Times contains the following "pipe":

Some time ago a St. Cloud girl married a man in business at Brainerd. Recently the young matron visited her mother here. It was her first visit since the happy day of the wedding and of course the mother was anxious to hear all about John. "I hope John is getting along all right in his business," she said.

"Yes, mamma, but he is a little worried about the new part of it. He says he is afraid he has bitten off more than he can chew."

"My dear you see now what I told you about man's deceit is true. John admitted that he smoked, but he never said a word about chewing until he had you safely married to him."

Case of A. F. Claus vs Northern Pacific will be One of the Cases to be Tried

There are several personal injury cases to be tried at the coming term of the district court which convenes in this city next Tuesday. The case of Orpha Huffman vs the City of Brainerd will be one of the cases to be taken up. This is an old case and it is thought that perhaps it will be settled before being called. Alderman & Manton appear for the plaintiff and W. A. Fleming will look after the city's interests.

Another case is that of A. F. Claus vs the Northern Pacific company, Bowe & Reimstad for the plaintiff. He was injured while working for the company last summer and sues for $10,000 damages.

John J. Keely brings suit against the M. & I. to recover $10,000. He is a man who was working at the Billings mill north of the city and while walking on the M. & I. track going home one night last June he was hit by a train and quite badly injured. Attorney C. A. Albright appears for Mr. Keely.

Insanity, Death or Health?

No. 2807 Locust Street,
St. Louis, Mo., March 29, 1903.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past. I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

ACCUSED OF MURDER

DR. G. R. KOCH OF NEW ULM,
MINN., ARRESTED AND HELD
WITHOUT BAIL.

PRISONER IS VERY RETICENT

REFUSES TO DISCUSS THE CRIME
FOR WHICH HE IS TAKEN
INTO CUSTODY.

New Ulm, Minn., Dec. 10.—Dr. G. R. Koch of New Ulm was arrested Friday night on a warrant charging him with the murder of Dr. L. A. Gebhardt, a fellow practitioner, on the night of Nov. 1. The warrant was sworn out by Henry H. Gebhardt, brother of the murdered man, who has been assisting the citizens' committee to gather evidence.

Gebhardt came to New Ulm from his home in Black River Falls shortly after the murder of his brother and has been very active in pursuit of the murderer since. Late Friday afternoon he went to the office of Justice Henningsen with several of the citizens' committee and made the necessary affidavit, and the warrant was issued.

Sheriff W. J. Julius drove out to Koch's residence, some distance from town, and served the papers. Koch appeared to be self-possessed and exhibited no surprise when the officer told him he was under arrest. The swearing out of the warrant and the trip of the sheriff were accomplished so quietly that only a half dozen persons knew what was happening.

Koch is held without bail pending a preliminary examination. He will be arraigned Saturday. The preliminary hearing will take place in the old courthouse. Tuesday the grand jury will meet and in case he is held to await its action the evidence of the citizens' committee may be presented to that body at that time.

At the jail Friday night Dr. Koch declared that he had nothing to say and was not in the least nervous. He asked Sheriff Julius to get him an apple and retired to his cot at an early hour. He has engaged T. A. Abbott of Winona and George W. Somerville of Dr. Gebhardt to defend him.

Dr. Gebhardt was mysteriously murdered in his dental office on the night of Nov. 1. A hammer and a knife being the weapons used by the murderer. The killing was witnessed by Asa P. Brooks, editor of a New Ulm paper. Dr. Gebhardt's offices were over the newspaper office.

LED A DOUBLE LIFE.

Chicago Printer Charged With Being a Highwayman.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Acting by day as superintendent in the printing department of a local manufacturing company and at night the part of charitable highwayman is said to have been the career of Edward E. Clark, now under arrest. According to his confession he has played the varied role for a year. He has admitted being implicated in several holdups which have puzzled the police.

Incidentally Clark declared that he had traveled all over the world and that on one occasion, while making a trip to China, he struck down and killed three of a crowd of sailors who had mutinied. Herbert Boyer, also a printer, was taken into custody as an accomplice.

In all the robberies Clark is said to have been a charitable thief, returning part of the stolen property to the victim. In one instance he ordered Boyer, at the muzzle of a revolver, to return a gold watch which they had stolen from a woman. In another case he says he and his companion were robbed by a bartender after they had robbed him. Clark's home is handsomely furnished and he has borne a good reputation.

INDIAN MURDERERS SURRENDER.

One of Them Boasts That He Has Killed Four Persons.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 10.—Kil-Na-Meet, regarded as one of the worst Indians in the northern part of the province, has surrendered to the police, together with Siwash Nash, an alleged accomplice in many crimes. They were committed on charges of murder by the magistrate of Alert Bay and will be brought to Victoria for trial. Kil-Na-Meet boasts that four victims have fallen beneath his knife and axe. Robbery and revenge were the motives for the alleged murders. An Indian woman, the last victim, was struck on the head with an axe and her throat was cut from ear to ear.

POLICE OFFICIALS MYSTIFIED.

Body of a Man Found Encased in Ice
at La Crosse, Wis.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 10.—The police here are mystified by circumstances surrounding the discovery of the body of an unknown man frozen in the ice of the river. A steamboat ticket bearing the name of J. Anderson, good for passage from Seattle to San Francisco on the steamer Jeanie was found on the body. It had not been used and this fact is regarded as strange by the police, who advance the theory that the man came across the country to the river and there met his fate. Being the body had evidently been in the water for several days.

Policemen Fatally Injured.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—A street car Friday night collided with a patrol wagon in which three officers were riding, and besides demolishing the vehicle and killing one of the officers, fatally injured two of the horses.

Cattle Rustler Breaks Jail.

Neligh, Neb., Dec. 10.—Frank Donner, convicted in the district court Thursday on the third trial of cattle rustling, broke out of jail Friday. A large posse is in pursuit.

TRADE OUTLOOK OPTIMISTIC.

Whole Country Looks Forward With Confidence to the Coming Year.

New York, Dec. 10.—A street's weekly review of trade says while distribution displays more irregularity, manufacturing industries, with few exceptions, continue very active. The heavy decline in cotton has checked Southern trade and collections, and mild weather retards business in the midwest, part of the Northwest and the Ohio valley. The leading Lake cities, however, show improvement in most lines and in collections. Wholesale distribution as usual at this season, tends to quietness, though in excess of a year ago. Western jobbers fail to report an active reorder movement in staples, but holiday trade is progressing favorably and promises, with favorable weather, to reach a large total. Holiday specialties in groceries, drygoods and fancy articles have had a large sale and the hardware trade East and West is in excellent shape. The winter wheat situation is still not entirely clear. The feeling is one of optimism in trade. Confidence in the South, ability to withstand the drop in cotton and hold for better prices is freely expressed, and the rest of the country seems to look forward to 1905 with confidence, and some lines report a full quarter's trade already practically booked.

PHYSICIAN FILES HIS CLAIM.

Dr. Zeigler Asks $126,650 From Estate
of Mrs. McVickers.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Dr. L. G. H. Zeigler, who was physician to the late Mrs. Harriet G. McVickers, who died in Pasadena, Cal., last summer, Friday filed a claim in the probate court against the McVickers estate for $126,650. The claim of Zeigler is certain to meet with resistance at the hands of Horace McVicker, son of the deceased woman, from the first has questioned the right of the physician to any share or portion of his mother's estate.

There are seven different items named in the list, but the principal one is a claim for $100,000, which Dr. Zeigler says is due him by the terms of a written contract executed by Mrs. McVicker in 1899. The remainder of the amount asked for in the claim is declared by Zeigler to be due for compensation and expenses promised by Mrs. McVicker to the claimant, upon an oral contract to leave Chicago and devote all his time to care for her and accompany her as physician to California.

FOURTEEN GERMANS KILLED.

Baron Von Busche and Party Attacked by Natives.

Port Nolloth, Cape Colony, Dec. 10.—Baron von Busche, with twenty men, proceeded to Warmbad, in German Southwest Africa, was attacked by rebels and fourteen of the men were killed.

General Cronje Brings Suit.

St. Louis, Dec. 10.—General Piet A. Cronje, the Boer war veteran, Friday brought suit in the St. Louis circuit court to restrain the proprietors of a Boer war exhibition company from using his name or photograph for advertising purposes.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The diet of Finland was formally opened Friday by the governor general, Prince John Obolensky.

At Peoria, Ill., Austin Rice and Kid Abell of Chicago fought ten fast rounds to a draw Friday night.

President Diaz of Mexico has reappointed the entire cabinet and Friday asked congressional sanction thereof. Charlie Neary of Milwaukee and Kid Goodman of Boston fought a fast six-round draw at Milwaukee Friday night.

At Lowell, Mass., Harvey Parker, the Brooklyn wrestler, defeated Eugene Tremblay, the Canadian champion, Friday night, winning two falls, catch-as-catch-can.

George T. Parr, a well known business man of Kearney, Neb., committed suicide Friday night by shooting himself through the heart. Business troubles was the cause.

In reviewing principal operations in the twenty-five principal cities of the United States for the month of November, 1904, as compared with the same month in 1903, the Construction News says that there has been a total increase of about 25 per cent.

WOMEN WHO WORK

Need Strong, Vigorous Nerves.

The life of women and girls who work is at best a hard one and even under the most favorable circumstances the results often show shattered nervous systems and broken down health. To meet the conditions required of her, to sustain the extra strain and nervous tension of duties never intended for her in the plan of nature, she must use every endeavor to preserve the vitality of her nerves and the regularity of the female functions. No remedy ever offered the world has accomplished the wonderful results obtained from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. By supplying the nerves and blood with the elements necessary to their life and activity, they cause a steady increase of natural strength to both body and mind, brighten the eyes, clear the complexion and instead of a depressed, worn-out feeling, there will be one of buoyancy and life. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills make life worth living.

Mrs. Anna Doretz, of No. 919 Cleveland Avenue, Niagara Falls, N. Y., says: "I was overtaxed with work and completely tired out. I used to go to bed to think and worry and could not sleep as a result and I was nervous during the day. Hearing of the good effects of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in such affections I determined to try them. I got a box and they were a complete success. They toned me up quickly. I got over the nervousness and sleep finely and restful again. I am sure I am glad to recommend them." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

UNDER CIVIL RIGHTS ACT.

Colored Constable Wins a Suit in an Illinois Court.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 10.—For the first time in the history of Peoria county a suit brought under the civil rights act has been fought and won. Because he was refused admission to the lower floor of the Main street theater on account of his color, Henry C. Gibson, a colored constable, was Friday given a verdict in the sum of $25 by a jury composed mainly of business men in a local justice court.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age, dyspepsia, jaundice, fever, constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c, at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store.

Incidentally Clark declared that he had traveled all over the world and that on one occasion, while making a trip to China, he struck down and killed three of a crowd of sailors who had mutinied. Herbert Boyer, also a printer, was taken into custody as an accomplice.

In all the robberies Clark is said to have been a charitable thief, returning part of the stolen property to the victim. In one instance he ordered Boyer, at the muzzle of a revolver, to return a gold watch which they had stolen from a woman. In another case he says he and his companion were robbed by a bartender after they had robbed him. Clark's home is handsomely furnished and he has borne a good reputation.

INDIAN MURDERERS SURRENDER.

One of Them Boasts That He Has Killed Four Persons.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 10.—Kil-Na-Met, regarded as one of the worst Indians in the Northern part of the province, has surrendered to the police, together with Siwah Nash, an alleged accomplice in many crimes. They were committed on charges of murder by the magistrate of Alert Bay and will be brought to Victoria for trial. Kil-Na-Met boasts that four victims have fallen beneath his knife and axe. Robbery and revenge were the motives for the alleged murders. An Indian woman, the last victim, was struck on the head with an axe and her throat was cut from ear to ear.

POLICE OFFICIALS MYSTIFIED.

Body of a Man Found Encased in Ice at La Crosse, Wis.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 10.—The police here are mystified by circumstances surrounding the discovery of the body of an unknown man frozen in the ice of the river. A steamboat ticket bearing the name of J. Anderson, good for passage from Seattle to San Francisco on the steamer Jeanie was found on the body. It had not been used and this fact is regarded as strange by the police, who advance the theory that the man came across the country to the river and there met his fate, being thrown in the stream. When found the body had evidently been in the water for several days.

Policemen Fatally Injured.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—A street car Friday night collided with a patrol wagon in which three officers were riding, and besides demolishing the vehicle and killing one of the horses, fatally injured two of the officers.

Cattle Rustler Breaks Jail.

Neligh, Neb., Dec. 10.—Frank Doner, convicted in the district court Thursday on the third trial of cattle rustling, broke out of jail Friday. A large posse is in pursuit.

TRADE OUTLOOK OPTIMISTIC.

Whole Country Looks Forward With Confidence to the Coming Year.

New York, Dec. 10.—The street's weekly review of trade says while distribution displays more irregularity, manufacturing industries, with few exceptions, continue very active. The heavy decline in cotton has checked Southern trade and collections, and mild weather retards business in the Southwest, part of the Northwest and the Ohio valley. The leading Lake cities, however, show improvement in most lines and in collections. Wholesale distribution as usual at this season, tends to quietness, though in excess of a year ago. Western jobbers fail to report an active reorder movement in staples, but holiday trade is progressing favorably and promises, with favorable weather, to reach a large total. Holiday specialties in groceries, drygoods and fancy articles have had a large sale, and the hardware trade East and West is in excellent shape. The winter wheat situation is still not entirely clear. The feeling is one of optimism in-trade. Confidence in the South, ability to withstand the drop in cotton and hold for better prices is freely expressed, and the rest of the country seems to look forward to 1905 with confidence, and some lines report a full quarter's trade already practically booked.

PHYSICIAN FILES HIS CLAIM.

Dr. Zeigler Asks $126,650 From Estate of Mrs. McVickers.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Dr. L. G. H. Zeigler, who was physician to the late Mrs. Harriet G. McVickers, who died in Pasadena, Cal., last summer, Friday filed a claim in the probate court against the McVickers estate for $126,650. The claim of Zeigler is certain to meet with resistance at the hands of Horace McVicker, son of the deceased woman, who from the first has questioned the right of the physician to any share or portion of his mother's estate.

There are seven different items named in the list, but the principal one is a claim for $100,000, which Dr. Zeigler says is due him by the terms of a written contract executed by Mrs. McVicker in 1899. The remainder of the amount asked for in the claim is declared by Zeigler to be due for compensation and expenses promised by Mrs. McVicker to the claimant, upon an oral contract to leave Chicago and devote all his time to care for her and accompany her as physician to California.

General Cronje Brings Suit.

St. Louis, Dec. 10.—General Piet A. Cronje, the Boer war veteran, Friday brought suit in the St. Louis circuit court to restrain the proprietors of a Boer war exhibition company from using his name or photograph for advertising purposes.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The diet of Finland was formally opened Friday by the governor general, Prince John Obolensky.

At Peoria, Ill., Austin Rice and Kid Abell of Chicago fought ten fast rounds to a draw Friday night.

President Diaz of Mexico has reappointed the entire cabinet and Friday asked congressional sanction thereof.

Charlie Neary of Milwaukee and Kid Goodman of Boston fought a fast six-round draw at Milwaukee Friday night.

At Lowell, Mass., Harvey Parker, the Brocton wrestler, defeated Eugene Tremblay, the Canadian champion, Friday night, winning two falls, catch-as-catch-can.

George T. Parr, a well known business man of Kearney, Neb., committed suicide Friday night by shooting himself through the heart. Business troubles was the cause.

In reviewing building operations in the twenty-five principal cities of the United States for the month of November, 1904, as compared with the same month in 1903, the Construction News says that there has been a total increase of about 25 per cent.

WOMEN WHO WORK

Need Strong, Vigorous Nerves.

The life of women and girls who work is at best a hard one and even under the most favorable circumstances the results often show shattered nervous systems and broken down health. To meet the conditions required of her, to sustain the extra strain and nervous tension of duties never intended for her in the plan of nature, she must use every endeavor to preserve the vitality of her nerves and the regularity of the female functions. No remedy ever offered the world has accomplished the wonderful results obtained from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. By supplying the nerves and blood with the elements necessary to their life and activity, they cause a steady increase of natural strength to both body and mind, brighten the eyes, clear the complexion and instead of a depressed, wornout feeling, there will be one of buoyancy and life. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills make life worth living.

Mrs. Anna Doretz, of No. 919 Cleveland Avenue, Niagara Falls, N. Y., says: "I was overtaxed with work and completely tired out. I used to go to bed to think and worry and could not sleep as a result and I was nervous during the day. Hearing of the good effects of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in such affections I determined to try them. I got a box and they were a complete success. They toned me up quickly. I got over the nervousness and sleep finely and restful again. I am sure I am glad to recommend them." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

Insanity, Death or Health?

No. 2807 Locust Street,
St. Louis, Mo., March 29, 1903.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past.

I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

WINE of CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

ACCUSED OF MURDER

DR. G. R. KOCH OF NEW ULM,
MINN., ARRESTED AND HELD
WITHOUT BAIL.

PRISONER IS VERY RETICENT

REFUSES TO DISCUSS THE CRIME
FOR WHICH HE IS TAKEN
INTO CUSTODY.

New Ulm, Minn., Dec. 10.—Dr. G. R. Koch of New Ulm was arrested Friday night on a warrant charging him with the murder of Dr. L. A. Gebhardt, a fellow practitioner, on the night of Nov. 1. The warrant was sworn out by Henry H. Gebhardt, brother of the murdered man, who has been assisting the citizens' committee to gather evidence.

Gebhardt came to New Ulm from his home in Black River Falls shortly after the murder of his brother and has been very active in pursuit of the murderer since. Late Friday afternoon he went to the office of Justice Henningsen with several of the citizens' committee and made the necessary affidavit, and the warrant was issued.

Sheriff W. J. Julius drove out to Koch's residence, some distance from town, and served the papers. Koch appeared to be self-possessed and exhibited no surprise when the officer told him he was under arrest. The swearing out of the warrant and the trip of the sheriff were accomplished so quietly that only a half dozen persons knew what was happening.

Koch is held without bail pending a preliminary examination. He will be arraigned Saturday. The preliminary hearing will take place in the old courthouse. Tuesday the grand jury will meet and in case he is held to await its action the evidence of the citizens' committee may be presented to that body at that time.

At the jail Friday night Dr. Koch declared that he had nothing to say and was not in the least nervous. He asked Sheriff Julius to get him an apple and retired to his cot at an early hour. He was engaged T. A. Abbott of Winona and George W. Somerville of Sleepy Eye to defend him.

Dr. Gebhardt was mysteriously murdered in his dental offices on the night of Nov. 1, a hammer and a knife being the weapons used by the murderer. The killing was witnessed by Asa P. Brooks, editor of a New Ulm paper. Dr. Gebhardt's offices were over the newspaper office.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Acting by day as superintendent in the printing department of a local manufacturing company and at night the part of charitable highwayman is said to have been the career of Edward E. Incidentally Clark declared that he had traveled all over the world and that on one occasion, while making a trip to China, he struck down and killed three of a crowd of sailors who had mutinied. Herbert Boyer, also a printer, was taken into custody as an accomplice.
